【Applying for an Exemption from National Pension Insurance Premiums】

Do you have difficulty paying your National Pension Insurance premiums? Ota City offers an exemption scheme that can help. When you apply for the scheme, the pension office will assess the income that you (the applicant), your spouse, and your head of household received in the previous year. If your application is then approved, you will be exempted from paying all or part of your National Pension Insurance premiums. Applications may be made retroactively for premiums owed up to two years and one month in the past. A new application must be submitted each year. Please visit Ota City's website if you have any questions.
